

Botanical Name: Magnolia grandiflora "Little Gem" (mag-NO-lee-uh gran-dih- FLOR-uh)

Common Name(s): Little Gem, Dwarf Southern Magnolia

Height: 15' by four to six foot spread

Form, Branches, Twigs: Narrow columnar to pyramidal crown shape (no more than one-third the size of the non-dwarf magnolia)

Fruit/Seed: White citronella scented, cup shaped flowers

Leaves: Evergreen leathery, ovate, dark glossy green above/hairy rust color under

Habitat: Moist well drained soil but is drought tolerant

NOTES
