

- Botanical Name: Diospyros virginiana L (di OS pir os ver jin I A na)
- Common Name(s): Persimmon
- Height: 20' -70'
- Form, Branches, Twigs: Dense Cylinder or rounded crown. Dark brown or black bark; thick deeply furrowed into small square scaly plates. Brown to gray twigs often hairy
- Fruit/Seeds: Yellow bell shaped fragrant flower. Male 3/8" (2-3 together) Female 5/8" (solitary) Fruit is 2/4" to 1 1/2" in diameter.
- Leaves: Ovate-elliptical, long-pointed leaves with shiny dark green above and whitish-green below (can be hairy or not). Turns gold in Fall.
- Habitat: Full sun, well watered first few years. Moist soils to dry uplands

Notes _____

