

Botanical Name: Salix babylonica L. (SAL-iks bab-il-LON-ik-uh)

Common Name(s): Weeping Willow

Height: 35' – 50'

Form, branches, twigs: Weeping crown. Young shoots are brown and drooping. Reddish brown bark in winter.

Fruit/Seed: Yellow male and green female (3/4") catkins in early May and has a 1/2" brown capsuled fruit

Leaves: Long lance shaped, dark green above, paler below, turns yellow in Fall (3" -6"long)

Habitat: Full sun, close to water supply

Notes _____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____